Lake Woods Holdings Director Movements

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

13 November 2015

CPC, Australia's largest privately owned cattle company, is proud to announce Margaux Beauchamp has joined their primary board, Lake Woods Holdings (LWH) as a Non-Executive Director. Margaux joins three new directors Mike Kinski (UK), Ruhul Amin (UK) and Jim Hunter CFO (AUS) that have joined the LWH Board in the last three months.

Margaux is currently an Executive Director with BDO with a diverse range of corporate and agricultural skills. Margaux has a Master of Commerce from UQ, a Bachelor of Agricultural Economics from the University of New England along with numerous other industry and educational qualifications. Margaux has been the lead on several capital raising and large scale agricultural transactions and will contribute invaluable assistance to the continued growth of CPC. Margaux originally grew up on her family property Stockport in Western Queensland and continues to be actively involved in the running of the business.

Troy Setter, CEO of CPC said:

“On behalf of CPC and the Lake Woods Holding Board, it is with great pleasure I welcome Margaux onto our board. She brings with her an invaluable amount of knowledge and experience with large scale innovative business transactions across the agricultural industry and numerous other industries. I am proud to have Margaux join our Board, her professional and industry knowledge will complement our current Board Members through the growth of CPC. The industry is going through a very exciting time with unprecedented demand for Australian beef and cattle, record cattle prices in Australia and Asia and considerable new capital looking to invest in the Australian Beef Industry. Margaux is entering our business at a very exciting time where her expertise will allow us to maximise our business opportunities.”

NOTES TO EDITORS

Consolidated Pastoral Company (CPC) is Australia's largest privately owned cattle producer. The company owns and operates a portfolio of 20 cattle stations comprising more than 5.7m hectares (1.5 times the size of Switzerland) of land in Australia.

The company also holds a 50% interest in a joint venture which owns and operates two feedlots in Indonesia. CPC direct sales channels primarily involve selling cattle and beef to Asian consumer markets, domestic feedlots or processors, and exporting live cattle.
